Re: Application of New Cingular Wireless PCS, LLC, Dycom Holding, Inc. and Wilkes Cellular, Inc. for
Consent to Assign Licenses (WT Docket No. 17-82)

Dear Madam Secretary:

Dycom Holding, Inc. and Wilkes Cellular, Inc. (the "Companies"), by counsel, submit the attached Response to the April 6, 2017 General Information Request ("Information Request") from the Federal Communications Commission in the referenced docket.¹ This information is provided to assist the Commission in its determination that the proposed transaction serves the public interest.

The Information Request seeks certain information that is sensitive, consisting of commercial, competitive and financial material that the Companies hold in strict confidence and does not reveal to any element of the public. Accordingly, the Companies submit this information to the Commission on a Confidential or Highly Confidential basis, as appropriate, under the Protective Order issued in this proceeding.² To the extent that an inadvertent oversight has led to the submission of material subject to any privilege, this production does not constitute a waiver of any privilege, and the Companies expressly reserve all rights attendant to such privilege.

INFORMATION REQUEST NUMBER 1:

Explain in detail the decision made by Dycom and Wilkes to assign the Lower 700 MHz C Block spectrum and the cellular spectrum that are the subject of these applications, including any attempts made to enter into a sale of this spectrum or alternative arrangements with parties other than AT&T.

DYCOM AND WILKES RESPONSE:

In 2002, Dycom participated in Auction 44 to complement the existing cellular operations of its wholly-owned subsidiary, Wilkes. Approximately ten years later, Dycom initiated an informal review of the companies' wireless holdings and operations, including  BEGIN DYCOM/WILKES CONFIDENTIAL
